

Parazilin

Protection in parasitic infection

Product Description:

Parazilin is a concentrate of herbs and herbal active substances supporting and reinforcing the protective capacities of the gastrointestinal tract. The unique formula and high concentration of key ingredients provides a high level of protection during period of high risk of gastrointestinal disorders caused by parasitic factors.

Composition:

Composition of flavourings, glycerine, propylene glycol, emulsifier – glyceryl polyethyleneglycol ricinoleate

Indications:

The formula is intended for each production type or group of poultry, in case of:

- Gastrointestinal disorder of parasitic origin

Usage:

500 ml / 1000 L of drinking water, 24h daily for 5 days